ANZAC Day, 25th April 2015

At the Dawn Service in Loxton, my daughter, Trudy Noack accompanied me. We both wore medals belonging to Gordon Alan Thom (from WWI), and Gordon Murray Thom (from WWII). It was a privilege to lay the wreath and pay respects on behalf of the Zonta Club of the Riverland Inc.

The crowd attending the service commemorating the 100th anniversary of the landing at Gallipoli, was the largest I have seen at a dawn service. Our club was invited by Bill Button, RSL President and Pastor Darrin Kohrt officiated at the service.
